Pure magic. Every step on this property is like a step back in time. Once you pass through the gated coral rock entrance you are instantly transported back to the Old Keys as you wind down the driveway through the shady tropical hammock and meander your way to the settler's beach home circa 1934. The charming 3/3 fishing cabin was meticulously updated to add modern comforts but still maintain its relaxing Old Florida appeal. The kitchen, living room and primary bedroom all enjoy open ocean views and all three bedrooms are ensuite. Just sitting on the shady back porch, enjoying the hush of the palms, you could mistake this breathtaking oceanfront for a postcard of yesterday's Florida Keys a century ago. This one-of-a-kind oceanfront estate property includes 4.3 acres of upland plus another 2.65 acres of baybottom and approximately 400 feet along the water! There is also a deep water dock (going into permitting for repair) and a unique collection of rare mature palms. The Native Residential (NR) Zoning allows for many different options for future development and also allows for weekly rentals. This is one of the rare, truly private large parcels on Plantation Key in Islamorada. Don't miss the opportunity to make this unspoiled piece of the past part of your future in the Keys! Call today for more details and to request a private showing.
